

LAMDA AT OUNDLE

OUNDL
School

As part of our broader theatrical offering, we are now delighted to offer LAMDA (London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art) qualifications in Acting, Verse and Prose and Public Speaking. LAMDA is a prestigious institution that is internationally recognised for its excellence in performing arts education. The examinations provide a structured pathway for individuals to develop their artistic skills, gain recognition for their achievements, and open doors to exciting opportunities in the world of performing arts.

“DRAMA GIVES US A GREATER UNDERSTANDING OF OURSELVES AND OTHERS. AT OUNDLE SCHOOL WE BELIEVE IN THE POWER OF PERFORMANCE TO ENHANCE A CHILD’S CONFIDENCE AND SELF-ESTEEM AND ITS ABILITY TO HELP THEM TO BE ARTICULATE AND CONFIDENT VERBAL AND NON-VERBAL COMMUNICATORS.

Matt Burlington, Head of Drama

LAMDA has an inclusive approach which welcomes participants of different ages, abilities, and aspirations, making it a versatile and inclusive platform for individuals to develop their acting, communication, and performance skills.

We offer LAMDA qualifications in the following:

Acting

Developing acting skills, character analysis, improvisation, and performing scripted material.

Verse and Prose

Honing their skills in interpreting and delivering verse and prose texts.

Public Speaking

Effective communication, speech delivery, and persuasive techniques in public speaking contexts.

WHY TAKE LAMDA EXAMS?

Public Speaking

LAMDA Exams in Public Speaking are ideal for individuals who wish to improve their communication and presentation skills. It is valuable for those who need to deliver speeches, presentations, or engagement in public speaking as part of their academic or professional pursuits.

Personal Growth

LAMDA Exams provide an opportunity for personal growth and self-expression. Those who are interested in developing confidence, creativity, and effective communication skills can benefit from the structured training and assessments offered by LAMDA.

Performance

LAMDA Exams are particularly popular among pupils who are passionate about drama, acting, and performing arts. It provides them with a structured framework to build a strong foundation of communication and performance skills.

University Applications

LAMDA qualifications at the higher grades (7 and 8), carry UCAS points that can enhance university applications.

DofE Skills

LAMDA Exams can be selected as a skill to be pursued for this section of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award.

OUR TEACHER OF LAMDA

Amanda Rayns

As a trained actress, Amanda understands the transformative power of drama and its impact on personal growth. She is committed to helping pupils build confidence, develop effective communication skills, and unleash their creative potential.

Amanda fosters a sense of joy and enthusiasm within the classroom, ensuring that each pupil feels valued, motivated, and empowered to take risks and explore their artistic abilities.

We are lucky to have Amanda as our LAMDA teacher. We are confident that her expertise and infectious love for the job will inspire and empower your child throughout their LAMDA journey.

Find out more about LAMDA here

